

The Aged Budweiser Romps In with Last Race at Bowie

George Moore's Entry Lands Final from Fast Field. Garnet Wins Third.

FOURTH TO MARTIN CASCA

By GEORGE B. MORRIS.
Bowie, Md., April 12.—Budweiser, 16 years old, and running under the colors of George Moore, accounted for the last race on the card at Bowie today. He was little fancied by the public on account of his long career on the turf, but a glance at his past performances would have shown that he has not been out of the money in his last ten starts. He was neglected in the betting and went to the post at 7 to 1. He trailed his field until well into the stretch, where he came on to win rather handily.

Richard P. Carman, the New York horseman, put a good one over in Garnet when he captured the third race by a length and a half, beating Greenglass and Ruth Strickland. Johnny McTaggart was in the saddle and he put up an excellent ride. Garnet paid 9 to 1.

In Which Lon Gets Handed a Flivver

"Say, Boss, what's this platonic friendship?"

My Gawd, Lon, is 'at the best that Rachel could stir up after all o' them excursions to the 'movies!' You're stung, but I begged you to discard them ridiculous-looking garments, 'cause I knowed they wasn't gonna get you nothin'. Now she's gone and picked you for a flivver. Don't start no cryin', 'cause you'll get me all flustered. Platonic friendship ain't no insult. It simply means you're a nice little guy, but that you won't quite do. However, tell her to get next to this Ida Claire horse in the first race, and it may be she'll reconsider. They've been known to reconsider. If Ida's saved for the third string right along, 'cause they're going to try to get her over today.

The second oughta be between Ancon and Lady London, with just a shade for the former. Gleaming looks awful sweet in the fourth, and we look for him to bring home the Alligretti. Old Blackford is in good shape right now and should be rippin' in the sixth.

We rather fancy Menlo Park in the last, but that has nothing whatever to do with what you saw. Suit yourself.

DOPEY DAN.
Note—Lon wants to know if the Press o' Mexico think Villa will die as a hero, what will our old college friend Felix Di-ast? And to think the poor kid ain't got no mother to guide him.

Covenant failed to put a team on the floor for its game with Peck Chapel and the contest was awarded to the latter.

RAY TOWERS ELECTED CAPTAIN OF MOHAWKS

The players of the Mohawk Athletic Club basketball team were tendered a banquet last night at the club house 1300 Pennsylvania avenue southeast. Speeches were made by all the players while President White, of the club; Manager Robert Muhihall, of basketball; Manager McGlure, of the baseball team, rendered addresses during the evening.

Ray Towers who played in the center position and guard position during the past season, was elected captain of the quint for next season.

LENGTH OF BATTLE HOLDING UP FIGHT

That Thomas-Egan battle which has caused so much comment in the local sporting ranks during the past week is not completed to date. At a meeting of the principals and Joe Freeman, the matchmaker of the Ardmore Club, yesterday, no agreement could be made in the number of rounds of the fight and the bout is today as far from being fought as one month ago.

Kid Egan, who formerly held the feather-weight title of the South, insisted on fighting twenty rounds, while Jerry McCarthy, the manager of Young Walter Thomas, would not consent to allowing the fast local feather-weight go-

Cincinnati, April 12.—When the music and shouting was over today the Reds were hanging on the short end of a 7-to-1 score. The Cubs were too good for Cincinnati at every stage of the game. McConnell held the ninth position for the Cubs and allowed the local seven runs. Toney and Schultz were walloped for nine hits.
